

Fig.12 : concordance de miniature dans les romans d'Austen

SE	I.12	but it turned out to be only the miniature of our great uncle.
SE	I.22	Then taking a small miniature from her pocket, she
PR	III.1	suspended, amongst several other miniatures, over the mantelpiece.
PR	III.1	pointing to another of the miniatures, "is my master -- and
PR	III.1	master's favourite room, and these miniatures are just as they used to be
EM	I.6	many beginnings were displayed. Miniatures, half-lengths, whole-lengths
PE	II.11	his hand, and displaying a small miniature painting, "do you know who